

AFRAID OF ITS PRESIDENT.

It is indeed a pitiable spectacle when a political party is afraid of its President.

We are told now that the Republican party is strong enough in Congress to pass a free coinage bill, but that the adherents of the bill are afraid of President Harrison.

The Republican party is a power in the country above the temporary aggrandizement of anybody it creates. If the party would retain that power it must show the people that the grand fabric it has reared in the last quarter of a century is not the stuff that crumbles into dust at the threat of the occupant of the White House.

If the perpetuation of party principles hangs upon the ipso facto of a single man, it is indeed a pitiable show of weakness on the part of a political organization that ought to be as eternal as the hills.

We cannot afford to go before the country in '92 with such a record, exposed as it will be, to the taunts and jibes of the swindled farmers and working men, of the United States, to whom a solemn silver pledge was given in 1888.

We cannot afford to be pointed out as the creature of a single man, or a party that repudiates its solemn promises.

Let a free coinage bill be passed and see if Harrison will dare carry out his threat to veto it. If Harrison has combined with Wall Street he ought to be forced into a position where the real nature of the bargain can be made apparent.

If Harrison has made such a bargain he can easily be repudiated by his party, but as long as the Republican party does not show by its own acts that it favors the poor man's money as against the currency of the rich, then how can it defend itself in 1892 when it is charged with being a partner in the transaction?

The Republican party must show itself clean upon the record and demonstrate that it is not afraid of its temporary President.

Senator Mitchell is in dead earnest about his proposed constitutional amendment for election of members of the United States Senate by direct vote of the people, and has given notice that he will address the Senate in its favor next Tuesday. If Mr. Mitchell can convince the Senate to pass the amendment it will be almost certain to become a law, as far as Congress is concerned, as there is a large and growing sentiment in the House in favor of such a change, and it seems to be generally believed here that such a change will eventually be made.

Sullivan and Jackson will maul each other in August before the California Athletic Club for $20,000. The membership fee will be raised to $100 and the house will be packed to suffocation. Nevada will have its regular contingent there and the sports from New York and New Orleans will be on hand. Betting is now $100 to $70 on Sullivan and the colored population are backing "Peter the Great" to the extent of every dollar they can make.

The new United States laws, Section 8, article 4, make the refusal of any one to give the correct age to the Census enumerator, a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $30. This appears to have been passed with special reference to women who did not like to give their correct ages. The law is arbitrary and inimical to the progressive idea of a great republic.

The rumor current that there was to be a change in the management of the Palace Hotel is denied by both Manager Thorn and Fred Sharon. Mr. Thorn says the story has no foundation.

Judge Rising reached the city yesterday on Court business.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Carson City and County will be held at the office of the County, in the City of Carson, Nevada, on Thursday, the 25th day of May, 1890, at 10 o'clock P. M. E. B. YERINGTON, Secretary.

It takes two carloads of paper every year made in the East and shipped across the Continent to print the Illustrated Catalogue of WEINSTOCK, LUBIN & Co., Retailers Sacramento. Four or five fast steam presses are used in printing; and thousands of dollars are expended for engravings, editing, printing, mailing, etc.

And what does it all mean? Back of it all there is a great truth. It pays to send to them for whatever you need to wear.

This Catalogue (free to any address) places their great stock at your very doors. It lets you select at leisure and select what you wish. It does not over-persuade you to buy what your judgment the next day will tell you is an unwise purchase. You can make out your order, lay it aside for a day or two, then review it and see if it still seems a wise one. Do salesmen give you this privilege?

If goods are not as ordered, you are at liberty to return them at their expense and get your money back.
